

KLEIN HORNIG EXPANSION

One of the preeminent legal firms in affordable housing, Klein Hornig rediscovered Davis Square Architects' corporate design side — having worked together on their original Boston location fit-out and design several years ago, we teamed up again for their exciting office expansion at 101 Arch Street.

Adding another 2,400 sf, the expansion continues Klein Hornig's focus on communication and collaboration throughout their workspace with plenty of natural light and transparency, and includes elegant and modern touches such as raw edge wood tables in the kitchen and open work area. ■
